Bishop Matz Replies to a Unitarian

Clergyman. (Special Correspondence,)

in reply to a sermon delivered a week ago by Rev. David Utier, paster of the Unity church on the "Reman Catholic" church, Right Rev. Bishon Maiz presched on 'Faith' at the last mass in Logan avenue chapel on Sonday, ex-plaining that on faith hinges the doc-traces of all religions. He said, in Truly, I say to you. I have not found It is evident that our Divine Savier tended to Migmatize in a Mriking atmer the infidelity of the Jews of his marker the infidelity of the Jews of his time. To convince yourself of this, mark the words of the next sentence: "And I say unto you that many shall come from the enet and the west, and shall rectine at table with Abraham, Isaac and Jacob in the kingdom of heaven; but the sinderen of the kingdom whall be east out into exterior darkness; there shall be weeping and guashing of teeth." seem as though in his prophetic intuition, as the times of his second coming are approaching, he foresaw the almost universal apostasy of modern times; for in the swill einstead of St. Luke he puss himself the question: "But yet the son of man when he cometh, shall he find, thing you, faith on earth?"

Outside or the one true church there is indeed very little gentine faith left in the uceds hodgy. From the divinity of Christ or down to the very existence of God, every article of faith has been extuinized, doubtest and decied until new, men are found who call in question the nery act of creation and who promity proclaim themselves legitimate descendants and progressive developments of the makeys with no more responsibility and no bigher or nobler desirny than the ape. We will not dispute them this privilege. It brates they would be why let them be mankeys; but for ourselves and the dignity of our race, we must note at the head of the mankeys; but for ourselves and the dignity of our race, we must note at the head of the mankeys; but for ourselves and the dignity of our race, we must note at in the name of them on the provilege. It brates they would be well and simple them this privilege. It brates they would be well and the privilege of the name of the markets provided and the markets of the markets of the markets. Bishop Brondel before his death had spoken of a possible division, and while he did not advocate it, he believed that the better way to divide the territory was to leave Heiena as the home of the bishop for the western half of the state and to have Billings or Great Falls the home of the bishop of the eastern discose.

It is understood that the matter is now being considered by the congrega-tion of the propagands.

Rev. Victor Day has been officially apprized of his appointment as administrator of the diocese of Montana until a successor of the late Bishop Brondel has been made. Bishop Brondel left a letter requesting that Pather Day be ramed as administrator. This wish of the dead bishop was respected by Archbishop Christic during his vicit on the occasion of the bishop's funeral. The appointment had, however, to be confirmed by Monsignor Falconia, apes-tolle delegate.
